

Ever since he burst on the scene in 1988 with his RCA Records debut album Blind To Reason, singer/songwriter Grayson Hugh has been wowing audiences around the world with his soulful singing, poetic lyrics and masterful piano playing. Known primarily for his blue-eyed soul radio mega hits, Talk It Over, Bring It All Back and How Bout Us, Hugh's music has also been praised by critics and fellow musicians from the Rock & Americana worlds. His latest release Back To The Soul, a return to his southern soul roots, has been garnering rave reviews.

Blind to Reason

Road to Freedom

"With his feet firmly rooted in the soul and blues of Memphis and New Orleans, Hugh has crafted a record with 'Back To The Soul' that is about as eloquently biographical as a music project can be - Strongly Recommended!"

— Howard Dukes, SoulTracks.com

LIVE SHOW REVIEWS

"Grayson Hugh & The Moon Hawks put on an overwhelmingly soulful concert featuring Grayson's fantastic songs, powerhouse piano playing, incredible vocals and amazing harmonies with Polly Messer. The whole band's musicianship inspired everyone! We absolutely loved them and they will be back!"

— Peter Moshay, Director of Production at Daryl's House

"Hugh did a spectacular show the other night at Infinity Music Hall. Blue-eyed soul's prodigal son is back —and stronger than ever."

— Jack Forchette, Director of Entertainment
Infinity Music Hall & Bistro

"Grayson Hugh and his harmony singer Polly Messer delivered a wonderful intimate performance that had the audience yelling for more. The diversity of his music, stage presence, artistry and impeccable storytelling through lyrics and melody made for an exceptional evening."

— Marc Kaplan, Owner, SubCulture - Arts Underground, NYC

"Hugh brought his diverse soufflé of rock, gospel, balladry and poetry to a slow simmer last night at the Lyric Theatre in downtown Stuart, FL. The building threatened to rise from its foundations, but the trembling rafters weren't caused by passing trains. It was Hugh's voice soaring for the stratosphere, strong and emotional, sweet and assured."

— Gary Shipes, The Stuart News, Stuart FL

"Hugh's a natural soul man."

— Ron Wynn, The Memphis Daily News

BLUE-EYED SOUL LEGEND

Renowned for his music featured on the soundtracks of Thelma & Louise and Fried Green Tomatoes
